OLEOMARGARINE.

PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE STATE NOW EATING BUTTER.

Butterine Manufactured and Shipped to Europe—What the Transatlantic Food Expert Argues — Effect of the New York Law.

[New York World.]

For eight months the people of New York have been eating butter. Before that time, or, to be more definite, previous to the 1st of last June, the majority of the residents of this city and state spread oleomargarine on their bread. Then the stringent law forbidding the manufacture or sale of butterine or any form of oleomargarine was passed, and since then very little bogus butter has been sold in this state. The penalty—fine and imprisonment—is so great and the watchfulness of oleomargarine antagonists so keen that throughout the entire state there is only one establishment where the "made" butter is sold at wholesale, and this establishment is exceedingly careful in its selection of customers, and will only sell to old dealers who are well known to them. The farmers keep a special agent here all the time to search out and punish offenders against the law.

Before the law went into effect dealers in butter declared loudly that the result of driving oleomargarine from the home market would be to so increase the price of butter as to make it practically beyond the reach of the poor man's purse. But the effect has, singularly enough, been just the reverse. Good butter was never so cheap as it has been since the exit of oleomargarine and as it is to-day. Just as much of the bogus stuff is manufactured throughout the country as ever before, but none of it finds its way into New York. It goes to Philadelphia, New Jersey, and Connecticut, and all the little towns in the states surrounding this are chocked up with the artificial product. From Massachusetts to Colorado there is hardly a city or village where the quantity of oleomargarine sold does not approximate closely the sale of butter. And so New York gains at the expense of her sister states. Illinois dairymen manufacture great quantities of first class butter and ship it to this city where it is sold for from 27 to 33 cents, while they and their families buy and eat a first-class quality of oleomargarine for 15 cents a pound. The prohibitory law has sent more butter to this market than ever came before, and the result is that the poor resident of the metropolis is luxuriating on the best butter at 25 cents a pound, while his brother in surrounding cities is forced to buy oleomargarine.

Nearly all the butter factories have moved from New York to Philadelphia, though a few yet remain. They do not, however, manufacture oleomargarine, but turn out a product which they call oil of beef, and which is exported in large quantities. Holland makes the bulk of the product, and converts it into butter, though the stuff is sold all over England, and in every city on the continent, and the American tourist on his summer vacation eats native oleomargarine at his London hotel, and spreads it on his bread in the French capital. The transatlantic food expert argues that it is all one whether the fat globules of cream are converted into butter or whether the fat globules of the cow's are so converted.

Some idea of the extent of the traffic in oleomargarine can be formed when it is remembered that one house in this city, not a manufacturer, sold over 50,000 pounds of the product per day, or enough to feed one-fourth the population of the city. And this from one establishment alone.

Suits have been brought by the state for infringing the law in the sale of oleomargarine. A decision is expected within a week or two, and upon this the constitutionality of the law hangs. Meanwhile New York will continue to eat butter.

The Extent of Buddhism.

[Brooklyn Eagle.]

Buddhism has overspread the eastern world like a mighty wave. the subsidence of which is nowhere apparent, though it began its miraculous course five centuries before the dawn of Christianity and more than 1,000 years before Mohammed uplifted his voice of prophesy in the Arabian deserts. It has been driven forth from the land of its origin, where the old Brahminic rights are still regnant, but everywhere else in eastern Asia it has taken firm and enduring root, uplifting its [illegible] and promulgating its gentle doctrines everywhere, from the equatorial lands to the wastes of Mongolia. It is divided into more sects than Christianity and Mohammedanism; but all derive their inspiration from the teachings of their common founder, and have erected his image into a common object of worship. Its gospels have expanded into libraries, the commentary upon them into mountains of literature which would appal Magliabecchi or Albertus Magnus.

It has a divided pontificate, one seat of authority being in Thibet and the other in Ceylon, each buttressed with a codex as interminable as the acta Sanctorem of the Roman church, and each asserting its claims to primacy. Considered historically and with reference to its still active and vital influence on uncounted myriads of the human race, it is one of the most interesting religions known to the records of man, nor is it surprising that its study engages more and more attention of that portion of the world to which until within the present generation it was but a name and a shadow.

A Glimpse of Paradise.

[Life.]

The Keeper of the Book. There are too many marks against your name. You cannot enter, Rev. ——. Why? How—er. Isn't there some mistake? The Keeper of the Book: "We make no such mistakes here, Rev. ——. I know, but it is very serious. I certainly can see no reason why you should be admitted." Nothing to deserve it, says the Keeper of the Book. It is what you have not done that has injured your record, Rev. ——. But I have preached the Gospel for forty years. The Keeper of the Book: You have preached because you enjoyed it. All the drudgery of your work you have handed over to your wife and daughters. You have neglected the poor and toadied the rich, and your reward you have already received in an easy and successful life. Next.

THE COLONIST AND MR. FARRAR.

The Colonist, in referring to "Mr. Dewdney's Assailants" says: "If "our memory serves us Mr. Farrar "just before founding the Mail was "editor of a Grit paper in Winnipeg. "It is probable, as evil communica-"tions are said to corrupt good man-"ners." Mr. Farrar's connection with the press of the Northwest began in the spring of 1882, shortly after Mr. Dewdney's appointment to the Lieut.-Governorship of the Territories. The spirit of speculation was then rampant; only a few weeks elapsed before it became an open secret that Mr. Dewdney, by his speculative actions and conduct toward the Indians and half-breeds, would speedily undo all that his predecessor, the Hon. Mr. Laird, had achieved by his careful, prudent and wise administration of affairs in the Territories. The press of the Northwest, irrespective of politics, directed the attention of the Dominion Government to Mr. Dewdney's conduct. Foremost in its onslaught on the Lieut.-Governor was the Winnipeg Times, owned by Mr. Amos Rowe, a brother-in-law to the Hon. Mr. Bowell, Minister of Customs, and edited by Mr. Edward Farrar. This was in the summer of 1882, about the time that Mr. Dewdney had succeeded in hoodwinking the Government in selecting Regina as the capital of the Northwest Territories, contrary to the well known wishes of the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company and others. The site was not a suitable one. But then Mr. Dewdney had a large interest there and his private interest must be considered in preference to all others. THE TIMES was right, but the Government were in Dewdney's power and change him they would not. Mr. Farrar's connection with the Winnipeg Times ceased in the summer of 1882. For a few weeks he was on the Sun's staff. That journal is thoroughly independent of all political parties. Since Mr. Farrar's connection with the Mail not a line has appeared from his pen justifying Mr. Dewdney or upholding him as blameless for the present troubles. We think that the editor of our contemporary should have had a due appreciation of his own remarks, and that from actual experience, as that personage has been accused of having, for sundry considerations and reasons, advocated the Mackenzie-Edgar regime. THE TIMES is accused by our contemporary of "pursuing a very cowardly and unworthy course in this matter." Such an accusation comes with very bad grace from a journal of the Colonist's reputation, for the public well understand that the Colonist keeps notoriously mum, unless the contrary suits its mercenary purpose, as witness its silence on the outrageous rates charged by the contractors on the Pacific coast end of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

THE COAST INDIANS.

In yesterday's issue the Colonist steps out of its way to indulge in a cynical insinuation against Mr. Grant, M. P. P., in regard to the position taken by that gentlemen anent the Indian troubles at Metlakatlah and surrounding country. As every one knows there are two sides to all questions of this character. Notwithstanding the missionary spirit by the Colonist of a portion of the missionaries on the northwest coast, and while not denying that they have done some good, we cannot agree with our morning contemporary that the Indians have had under the teachings of those missionaries a thorough recognizance of the law of the whites and respect for the same." The contrary has been proven beyond dispute, and the evidence taken under oath is before the public. The missionaries referred to by the Colonist will not dare deny that they have advocated the notion of Indian title to the lands, hence the troubles. Taking the Colonist as an authority, those not acquainted with the character of the Naas Indians would imagine that they are paragons of virtue and morality; but we are in a position to prove that such is not the fact. It is known to many that, during the migratory sojourn of these Indians in other parts, they are notorious thieves, will pay almost any price to get liquor, and will even barter the honor of their families to obtain it. These are hard facts which have not before been presented, and we only mention them to show that authority is not the only appreciation of the true side of this subject. While we can thus far agree with our morning contemporary, that the Dominion Government have been reprehensibly remiss and dilatory in dealing with this vexed British Columbia Indian question, the Government of this Province must not lose sight of the duty which it owes, both to the whites and red men.

THE Colonist states this morning that the tax proposed by the Dominion Chinese restriction law is only to be $5 per head. Our Ottawa correspondent gives the amount as $25, since increased to $50, and we have reason to believe that our authority is more reliable than that of our morning contemporary.

THE DOMINION LICENSE ACT.

Mr. J. M. Sparrow, Chief Inspector of Licenses under the Dominion License Act, has issued a notice that the following parties, and they only, are to be granted a license for the ensuing year:

WHOLESALE LICENSES—To Messrs. Robert Ward & Co., A. R. Gray & Co., R. C. Janion, Findlay, Durham & Brodie, Hudson Bay Company, per William Charles, Richard Carr, Turner, Beeton & Co., Welch, Rithet & Co., Oppenheimer Bros., G. Bossi, Boucharet & Cameron, a vessel license for Steamer Amelia.

SHOP LICENSES—Jas. Fell, Hy. Saunders, J. Wrigglesworth, John McAllister, E. C. Newfakler, A. Bossi, George Collins, John Boyd.

HOTEL LICENSES—Bodon & Hartnagle, Wm. McKeon, B. F. Dillon, Briggs & Gray, T. J. Barnes, Luke Pither, Van Allman, D. M. Ellis, Mrs. Astrico, Thos. Shaw (Summer License).

SALOON LICENSES—Peter Steele, A. McDonald, Wm. McNiffe, N. Allen, F. Sehl, Jas. McCandlish.

DISTRICT TAVERN LICENSES—Mathias Bowland, Henry Price, A. Gilmore, Mrs. E. Calvert, John T. Howard, Wm. Selleck, Jas. Bland, John Doran, Wm. Marshall, J. H. Meldrum, W. A. Elliott.

THE TIMES has already given its views in no uncertain manner on the legality of the Act. We have contended that its passage was a direct contravention of the spirit of the North America Act of 1867. The decision of the Privy Council has sustained the position taken by the several protesting provinces on the question. Its enforcement in this district will be resisted, and properly so. The action of the Government in pressing it upon the people of Victoria, and the district, is a most objectionable proceeding and one that must inevitably lead to trouble between the authorities of the Dominion and those of this Province. In view of the position the question is now in as between the Federal and Local Governments, we cannot help thinking that the present movement is an ill-advised and exceedingly arbitrary one. We are not now dealing with the question as to whether there are not too many licenses issued in this city, but with the general Government for undue interference with our rights as a Province, the autonomy of which must be sustained at all hazards—if the unity of the confederation scheme is to be maintained.

IT is evident that the temper of the Canadians is now such that any attempt at a reconciliation with the arch rebel Riel, will be impossible. It is asserted that any one who attempts to treat with Riel or the Indians otherwise than by force, will meet the same fate that Riel must have. The murderers of half a hundred men and women and the destroyers of hundreds of homesteads cannot be pampered.

DR. GRAY, Liberal, has been elected to the Commons, for Levis, Que., by a majority of 200.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

WINNIPEG, April 24—Col. Scott's battalion will be divided, one-half being left at Swift Current and the remainder being sent on to Calgary. No troops will be kept in Winnipeg, and those now en route north of Lake Superior will be forwarded on their arrival.

Gen. Middleton yesterday telegraphed instructions that the Governor-General's body guards should, for the present, remain at Winnipeg, and when sent west their destination would be Swift Current, it is supposed for the purpose of joining Otter's division if required.

It has been ascertained that Riel has crossed the Saskatchewan near Duck Lake and now occupies both banks of the river. Rebel scouts are constantly appearing, and it is expected that a skirmish with Riel's men will take place to-morrow.

The Government is sending men to serve on the mounted police in the Northwest through the United States. Yesterday twenty-nine men, with forty-two horses, passed here. One of the men was H. O. Lambert, the youngest son of the Earl of Cavan.

The artillery brigade, under command of Lieut. Col. Montmambert, Maj. Jarvis second in command, are in admirable shape for service.

Gen. Laurie, formerly in command of the militia of British Columbia has joined the service.

Men worth their thousands are now to the front, including many of the best athletes in the country. Sir John Macdonald's only son (Hugh John) is a lieutenant in the Ninetieth foot, and despite his skinned heel, is as merry as a cricket and faithful as a Swiss guardsman.

Niagara Falls Utilized.

Sir William Thomson's idea of employing the water power of the Niagara Falls for the purpose of generating electricity by dynamo machines has been realized. In the mill of Quimby and Company magneto-electricity machines are driven by the force of the waters, which supply the electricity for a large number of telephones, many of them being in Buffalo, twenty-five miles distant.

A Fine Estate.

TORONTO, April 23.—The heirs of the Townley estate, England, met here yesterday, and placed in the hands of Solicitor Wilson records proving their descent from John Lawrence and Mary Townley. There was a link missing during the last fifty years, but it has been found. No trouble is anticipated in proving their claim. It is said $40,000,000 has been awarded to Mrs. Sydney T. Brown of Bagdad, N. Y., a relative of the heirs here.

The Cariboo Collector.

Samuel Augustus Rogers, Esq., has been appointed by the Lieut.-Governor an Assessor and Collector, under the Assessment Acts, and Collector of Provincial Revenue Tax for the Richfield and Lightning Divisions of the Electoral District of Cariboo, vice Archibald McNaughton, Esq., resigned.

The Morris-Sullivan Co.

Our readers will bear in mind that this company will open to-night in the Philharmonic hall. The press everywhere speaks in the highest praise of the merits of the troop and the first-class entertainment given by it.

Spicy Placards.

Placards were posted in various parts of the city with such expressions, "The Chinese must go," "Down with the bosses," "We know who they are," etc. They were removed at an early hour and no person seems to know anything about them.

—The Morris-Sullivan Company arrived on the Starr this afternoon, and will appear at the Philharmonic to-night.

FROM WRANGEL.

A Boy Loses his Life by a Log Rolling Over Him.

On Tuesday, 14th inst., an accident occurred to a very promising youth, about fourteen years of age, a son of W. Wiggs, resulting in his death. The young fellow, with a number of other school boys, were rolling into the water a log that was lying on the beach, and when it started he was still pushing against it. The log was about thirty inches in diameter, and coated with very rough bark, which caught young Wiggs clothing and pulled him with it and then rolled over his body with the result stated. He had been in Mr. Young's Training Institute for a long time, and from his prepossessing manner and amiable disposition had won the favor not only of the whole institution but of every one with whom he came in contact. Mr. and Mrs. Young have always taken a deep interest in the education and welfare of deceased, and they feel the bereavement as though they had lost one of their own family.

A Mining Region.

The Spokane Review, in an article on gold mining, says all the indications point to the existence of a great mineral belt from Spokane Falls northerly, up into British Columbia. It is to be the future great mining field, and that at no distant day. Once convince capital that the gold and silver is there and there will be no lack of money to develope the country.

—A horse belonging to the Transfer Co., and attached to a single buggy, came down Government street this afternoon at a gallop and without a driver. He ran straight for the stable, where he pulled up, without any damage to the vehicle.

—Mr. Wolf will sell by auction to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock, 75 cases oranges, also a lot of nearly new furniture, including bed-room set, lounges, spring mattresses, &c.

Mr. A. W. Vowell left this morning for Kootenay. He goes by way of Kamloops and Eagle Pass. A good man is needed in that district, and from what we know of Mr. Vowell he is the right man in the right place.

Too Enterprising.

The New Westminster Guardian published an extra containing a dispatch from New York, dated April 22nd, which announced among other things that England had declared war against Russia; great alarm was felt for British Columbia; United States had refused to allow Canadian troops to pass through American territory; Riel had met the Russian Minister at Washington three years ago and arranged for help, and Russia was now supplying him with arms and money; Sir John A. Macdonald would be hurled from power, etc., etc. The extra almost rivalled the Seattle Chronicle's 1st of April canard.

Mining News—Courts in Alaska—Survey Party—Ice.

The latest news from Alaska by steamship Idaho is unimportant, everything being quiet in that territory. Miners at Juneau are begining work on placers. The weather is mild and favorable for mining operations. Treadwell will have his large quartz mill running in May.

The first court will hold its session in May at Juneau to decide several cases in dispute.

Many miners have gone to the new field at Junau river, Burroughs Bay, but no later news has arrived. Very little move is being made in the fisheries.

The U.S.S. Pinta has returned to Sitka after taking the exploring party under Lieut. Allen, to Nuchek, near the mouth of Copper river.

Ice is still running in the Stickeen river, and canoes were to start up with freight on Monday last.

The Royal City and the C. P. R.

Correspondence has taken place between the Mayor of New Westminster and Mr. Van Horne in reference to a railway service for that city. At a recent session of the City Council His Worship read the following letter from Mr. Van Horne on the subject:

SIR:—Replying to your favor of March 24th, I beg to say that the agreement between the Government of British Columbia and this company (not yet executed) provides for the construction during the year 1886 of a branch from the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway to New Westminster, in consideration of aid to the extent of about $75,000 in cash to be contributed by the Provincial Government and the City of New Westminster, jointly. The necessary right of way and depot grounds to be contributed by New Westminster. We have not yet been able to spare an engineer to locate the line, but from information at hand I venture the opinion that the proper location would be along the Coquitlam, on or near the line surveyed a year or two ago under the direction of Mr. Marcus Smith. The location of its terminus in New Westminster would depend upon the location of the depot grounds to be furnished by the city. We will take steps towards the survey of the line as soon as possible after the agreement with the Government is executed, and will then communicate with you further on the subject. W. C. VAN HORNE.

Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

The Canadian Pacific Railway company have called a meeting of the shareholders for 13th May next. The notice sets forth that, "certain legislation having been asked for by the company looking to the cancellation of the unsold shares now deposited with the Government, and to other matters in the interest of the company, and in view of the importance of prompt action on the part of the company giving effect to such legislation should it be granted, the above named meeting will be made special for the purpose of considering and accepting such legislation (or authorizing the Board of Directors to carry out the provisions thereof and to exercise the powers thereby conferred); and specially to make any issue of mortgage bonds not exceeding the amount of the shares to be cancelled; to consider and to determine the conditions, remedies, forfeitures, authorities, voting power, and other securities to be provided for in the deed securing such bonds, and to consider and act upon any provision contained in such Act respecting extension by lease or otherwise of company's railway."

The Alaska Boundary.

On the 16th Jan., 1885, the Hon. Sackville West, British Minister at Washington, sent a letter to the Governor-General at Ottawa, enclosing an extract from a report of the Governor of Alaska Territory, on the subject of the boundary between Alaska and British Columbia. The extract is as follows: "The boundary line from Portland Canal to Mount St. Elias should be speedily and definitely determined by a joint survey of the English and American Governments. This matter I deem of first importance. Several highways to the interior of British Columbia begin within the limits of the district notably the Stickeen river. I have been informed that rich placers have been discovered on the head waters of other rivers, the Juno, the Iako, and the Chilcat, and unless the boundary is definitely settled much trouble will ensue." This communication has been before the Government for three months, but no action has yet been taken in regard to it.

Canadian Journals.

The northwest rebellion has afforded the journals of the Dominion an opportunity of displaying their enterprise in providing late and reliable news. As a result their subscription lists have been largely increased. The Globe still seems to keep in the lead, its circulation for the week ending April 11th having averaged 36,325 copies daily, and on one occasion it reached 51,000. That journal and the Winnipeg Free Press gave the particulars of the Frog Lake massacre at least twelve hours before any of their contemporaries.

The Burned Shaft.

The Nanaimo Free Press says the explorers have penetrated about 80 yards from the No. 4 shaft, and find the evidences of the fire in the air ways, but the main road escaped the ravages of the fiery element. There are several large caves of the roof, but the general damage is not as great as anticipated. The work of pumping out the No. 4 and No. 3 shafts is proceeding continuously. As the water recedes the mine will be placed in working order. Neither of the bodies have yet been found.

Creditors of McNamee.

The Lieut.-Governor has appointed Edwin Johnson, Esq., J. P., Barrister-at-Law, to be a Commissioner to inquire into and report upon the claims of those persons who are creditors of McNamee & Co., for work and labor, and for services performed in the construction of the Dry Dock at Esquimalt. The appointment is a good one. The Commissioner will sit on Monday next, at 2 p. m., at the Legislative Building, and continue until the work is finished.

The boys will start from Temperance Hall at 2:30 on Friday afternoon and proceed to the Blue Ribbon meeting at Esquimalt. All are invited. Fare 25 cents. The brass band will be in attendance.

ON THE WAR PATH.

The Rebels are Being Gradually Surrounded.

BATTLEFORD AT LAST RELIEVED

Special to The Times.

Latest from Prince Albert.

PRINCE ALBERT, April 23.—A scarcity of provisions renders the situation serious. Rations now are a pound and a half of flour daily to each family of four or five. The rebel supplies are also getting low, and they are now compelled to kill the crown cattle. No apprehensions are now entertained regarding residents at Saskatchewan or the vicinity.

Military Movements.

WINNIPEG, April 24.—Precautions have been taken by Gen. Middleton to have the whole country, along the line of advance which will be taken by Col. Otter with the flying column for Battleford, secured by scouts in order that no surprise be given to the troops. Col. Tyrwhitt, commanding 185 men of the Thirty-fifth battalion, of Simcoe, is now encamped at Swift Current awaiting orders to go forward. The telegraph line is being constructed to Saskatchewan Crossing. Col. Williams' force has arrived at Swift Current and is going into camp. It is probable that the Sixteenth battalion will remain there for a day or two, when they will likely follow Col. Otter. Col. Williams, with the Seventh Fusiliers of London, 285 strong, arrived here this morning and went into camp to effect necessary repairs, and secure rest before proceeding to Calgary to-morrow. Col. Scott's local battalion, 320 strong, have gone west.

In the Enemy's Country.

HUMBOLDT, April 23.—It has been raining heavily during the past twenty four hours. Camping is uncomfortable. Indian squads are to be seen for miles in every direction. A strong reconnoitering party, including one nine-pounder gun, under command of Capt. Drury, sixty cavalry under Boulton, and forty infantry under Smith, Gen. Middleton accompanying, left for Clark's Crossing this morning, distant thirty-two miles, and the rest of the command following more leisurely. The advance will reach the crossing to-night. Grassett's force was close by last night, and will get to Clark's Crossing. It is hoped a steamboat from Swift Current will be at Clark's Friday noon with supplies of food and forage, soon to be much needed. There is no news of Riel, but as we are in the enemy's country strong pickets are on duty. The forces now march in close order, with wagons in double rank.

An Attack on Battleford Expected.

WINNIPEG, April 24.—The news from Battleford is far from encouraging. The Indians have driven off all the stock in the surrounding country, and are concentrating in bands on the south banks of the Battle river. It is expected by the people in the barracks that the redskins will make an attack to morrow. They continue to plunder and burn all houses along the river front. The loss to settlers will be very heavy, as the rising is preventing them from doing any seeding; and as stock is so scarce, and consequently dear, it will take years to recover from the blow. Scouts have been sent from Battleford to meet Gen. Middleton at Clark's crossing and convey to him intelligence as to the exact position of affairs at Battleford and the vicinity.

RIEL SURROUNDED.

The column is now thirty miles south of Clark's crossing, on the Saskatchewan, and is nearing rebel territory. Maj. Boulton joined us last night, and the Grenadiers, under command of Col. Grassett, are close behind. General Middleton expects to come up with the rebels on Saturday, and an engagement will take place then, if at all. The irregular cavalry arrived last night at 10 o'clock. Col. Irving will advance from Prince Albert so as to join us in time to surround Riel and his party. Our force for this work is now complete, and decisive events are crowding fast upon us. Gen. Middleton has intimated that he will use the Saskatchewan river as much as possible for forwarding supplies north. The steamer Northcote will be kept constantly running. The General deems the river route the safest by which to transport supplies. He has intimated that it is his intention to establish a stronghold at Clark's crossing, as a base of supplies can be forwarded to it both by overland route and by the Saskatchewan river.

HORRIBLE ATTROCITIES.

Thus far twenty-eight settlers and loyal soldiers have been killed—fourteen at the Crozier fight, ten at Frog Lake and four at Battleford. The massacre at Frog Lake must have been accompanied by horrible atrocities, though the particulars have not been made public here. In the entire settlement there were but fourteen people, and possibly twelve were killed, though it is believed the number was but ten. It is not yet known positively whether it was Mrs. Delaney or Mrs. Gowanlock, (the latter a bride la.t October) who was killed; but death was far preferable to the fate of the one who was captured. There is a settlement at

ONION LAKE,

Eleven miles west of Battleford (Frog Lake is thirty-two miles west), but as yet no news of a massacre there has been received, and it is probable the settlers have fled to the barracks at Battleford. Big Bear and Lucky Man are the principal Cree chiefs in the terporized section, and both have great influence for evil. With Poundmaster they form a triumvriate of noteworthy red ruffians. It is not hard, therefore, to understand why Battleford is uneasy.

RELIEF REACHES BATTLEFORD.

The Indians Leaving the Locality.

WINNIPEG, 2.30 p. m., April 24.—A dispatch has just been received that Col. Herchemer's advance relief of the Mountain Police have reached Battleford and that the Indians and half-breed in-

The Making of a City.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Notwithstanding many forebodings and much disparagement the city of Vancouver seems to be approaching to a certainty. At such a time as the present it is perhaps a hard thing to sufficiently estimate the great issues at stake in this Province. In the next few years it will be finally settled whether British Columbia is to be reckoned as a great country, in any sense beyond acreage, or whether, as its enemies allege, it is a great delusion. The same time will suffice to declare, in like manner, the value of the C. P. R. as a policy, a road, and a speculation. The solution of these two problems will go far to determine a third: the future of the Burrard Inlet terminus. But there is one point worth considering now, as regards this City of Vancouver. There is a clear possibility of its virtual failure as a city, irrespective of the failure of the country or the railroad. For a city to be a success it must have two qualifications. It must be encouraging to trade, but it also must be encouraging to residents. It must be not only a money making, but also a money spending place; that is to say, it must not be such a town as no one would make their home is from choice, and no one would stay the moment they could afford to leave. A beautiful site and a good climate may go a great way to making a desirable town, but as is even the case in some degree nearer home than Vancouver the hand of man may do much to mar these natural advantages. Who that could help it but would avoid living in a town of countless blocks on rectangular streets admitting of a dense possible population say 200,000, without a public garden, an open square, or any more sequestered retreat than that which a 40 foot block on a 60 ft. street can afford? But who would not live in a town where, when once an upper rung in business life had been reached he might enjoy a pleasant villa with shrubbery and garden amid glorious views and bracing air, or an agreeable residence in a crescent or square with a good open space in front for lawns and shady walks; while the lowliest toiler might stroll in the evening down pleasant boulevards or in well kept parks? One may reasonably enquire whether such privileges are to be afforded the future inhabitants of Vancouver, or whether a dreary monotony of houseless blocks and unpaved streets will drive from the town all who are not absolutely compelled to live amid such depressing surroundings. The possibilities of her success are great; she may become the Alexandria or the Venice of this coast. But apart from these vast, and as some may say, visionary possibilities, there is little doubt it would require no such overwhelming amount of trade to make her the most populous city in the province. What then is being done to make her the most attractive? Never perhaps have more ample opportunities for creating a city been placed in the hands of a few individuals. The happiness of thousands may very materially depend upon places soon to be irrevocably registered and deeded. The action of the railway syndicate and the private owners in a few weeks will determine whether generations to come shall sing the praises of the Queen of the British Pacific, or whether Coal Harbor shall remain to the traveler and merchant as a mere reminiscence of wharves and saloons, and to all the rest of the world as a place where coupons of earth were laid down in streets for the market of speculation.

F. P.

Outrageous Imposition and Extortion.

CHILLIWHACK, April 22.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—Your attention must be called to more outrageous imposition, extortion and defiance of law on the C. P. Railway in British Columbia. So as to prevent passengers from having the choice of going down by steamer from Yale the contractor refuses to sell tickets for Yale from Lytton, Cook's Ferry, or Savona, unless at the full price through to Port Moody. This action is on account of the opposition steamer Adelaide now running to Yale. By such tricks on travelers, and illegal preference in freight, it is sought to destroy all other means of carriage in the province, in spite of the Consolidated Railway Act of Canada, 42 Vic., chap. 9, Sec. 17, which says that no tolls, that is passenger and freight charges, shall be levied or taken until approved by the Governor in council, nor until two weeks publication in the Canada Gazette. Sec. 40—That any railway opened contrary to such order shall forfeit $200 for each day so opened contrary to order or direction. Sec. 98—That the expression railway company, or company, in the act shall include any person being the owner or lessee of, or a contractor, working any railway constructed or carried on under the power of an act of Parliament. Now, Sir, on the 19th of March in the Dominion House of Commons in answer to Mr. Blake Mr. Pope said he had heard that the contractor on the C. P. R. in British Columbia was using the road to carry passengers and freight, other than workmen and goods for the use of the line. But that it was not by any arrangement with the Government. Perhaps the Colonist will explain.

MAINLANDER.

Christ Church Choir.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—As your correspondent has advanced a stage in our discussion perhaps you will allow me to reply. Christ Church is certainly not a public building, nor are the other pieces of public worship in this city. They are all open to the public but their services can only afford legitimate cause for criticism to the members of their respective congregations. England is a country open to the public of all nations, but what English statesman on finding himself in a minority in the cabinet would appeal to the European press? But your correspondent may say that there should be more delicacy and judgment in religious matters than is shown by adhering to the bare principle of majorities. His argument would be a just one. Yet he should remember that there is a true analogy between church government and national government. The executive of a church may reasonably initiate changes which do not involve fresh LEGISLATION, and in this they are supported [illegible] substantial majority, the minority can hardly have much cause for complaint. Let me add in conclusion of this somewhat simple matter that far from desiring that aimless and needless conduct on the part of a congregation which "Churchman" has aptly described as "drifting," as long as I am in any way connected with Christ Church, I shall do my utmost to prevent its members drifting in any direction. It is necessary for me to sign my name as your correspondent has made it sufficiently familiar.

Russian Half-Pay Officers Put on the Active List.

EGYPTIAN SECURITIES FALLING.

Special Dispatches to The Times.

Egyptian Securities.

LONDON, April 24.—3 p. m.—Telegrams from Egypt, touching the Franco-Egyptian relations, have an unfavorable effect on Egyptian securities. Egyptian Unified bonds, which opened this morning at 60¾, have fallen to 59½.

Returning to Europe.

LONDON, April 24.—A telegram from Alexandria to the Exchange Telegraph states that the French Consul General informed the Khedive and Nubar Pasha, Egyptian Foreign Minister, that he had instructions to suspend official relations with the government of Egypt. The same telegram also states that the Consul General has left Cairo for Alexandria to embark for Europe.

The Detectives Puzzled.

LONDON, April 24.—Mr. Swainson, severely wounded by the explosion at the Admiralty office yesterday, continues to make favorable progress. Detectives have obtained little evidence likely to afford a clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Lake Victoria's Line.

LONDON, April 24.—The telegraph line between Mesheel and Teheran is broken and Sir Peter Lumsden is thus prevented from communicating direct with London.

Declined the Order.

LONDON, April 24.—The Armstrong Works at Newcastle, having received an order from Russia for a large quantity of war material, declined to fill it, and have given notice to the British Admiralty of the nature of the order.

Left Cairo.

LONDON, April 24.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Gladstone announced that the French Consul-General had left Cairo to-day.

An Erroneous Translation.

LONDON, April 24.—Gladstone's announcements in the House of Commons that Barrere, French Consul-General, had left Cairo, is corrected at the Foreign office where it is explained that the Premier's statement was based on a translation of a Cipher dispatch to the Government, which has since been found to have been erroneous. The Foreign office announces that the Government have no information that Barrere has departed from Cairo.

In the House of Commons this afternoon, Mr. Labouchere and Mr. Richards, both Radicals, asked whether or not the Government, before deciding to go to war with Russia, would seek the offices of friendly powers to obtain a settlement. Gladstone replied that never during the present correspondence with Russia, or the discussion of the serious questions at present before Parliament, had the Government said anything in prejudice of the idea advanced by the questioners. As however, every answer made by the Government to interrogatories put in the House of Commons was an announcement to Russia, the Government, Gladstone said, had decided it was neither advisable nor convenient to make a declaration to Russia through Parliament.

Can Defend Herat.

LONDON, April 24.—Dispatches from Cabul state that the Ameer of Afghanistan has reiterated his statement that he is competent to defend Herat against Russia without the aid of England.

An Offer of Compromise.

CAIRO, April 24.—M. Barrere has delayed his departure from Cairo. It is stated Egypt now offers to compromise the dispute with France, concerning the suppression of the Bosphore-Egyptian by making an apology and by admitting that her officials violated the right of the domicile of the publishes, the apology, however, to contain no allusion to the seizure of the Bosphore-Egyptian.

France Becoming Hostile.

CAIRO via PARIS, April 24.—M. Barrere, Consul General of France to Egypt, has been instructed by his Government to suspend all official relations with Egypt and to make a declaration to the Government of Egypt that France declines to sanction the Egyptian financial convention and reserve to herself complete liberty of action.

Guillotined.

PARIS, April 24.—Abbe Ganahat was executed by the guillotine this morning for the murder last fall of Madam Ballerich.

A Private Understanding.

PARIS, April 24.—The breaking off of official relations between France and Egypt, the announcement of which rupture was made here this morning in a dispatch from Cairo, was entirely unexpected by the people and the news has created a great sensation. This act of France is considered unmistakable evidence that there is an understanding between France and Russia.

The Royal Pair.

BELFAST, April 24.—The Prince and Princess of Wales landed from the Royal yacht to-day. Notwithstanding rain falling steadily, vast crowds assembled to welcome the royal visitors and much enthusiasm prevailed.

Scouting Expedition in Egypt.

SUAKIM, April 24.—The Suakim Barber railway has been extended three miles beyond Handoub. A force 500 of enemy were discovered between Tambond and Essibio, and the troops are daily engaged in scouting expeditions.

On the Active List.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 24.—It is stated here that naval officers, who have been retired on half pay, have been ordered upon the active list pending the issue of the controversy between England and Russia.

Reported Defeat of the Italians.

ALEXANDRIA, April 24.—There is great excitement here over the French-Egyptian situation.

The French newspaper, Courier, publishes to-day a special dispatch which states that El Mahdi's men have attacked and defeated the Italian forces near Massowah. The Italian Consul has no knowledge of the affair reported by the Courier.

Flushing the Sewers.

Under the direction of the Sanitary Committee, the sewers and gutters in the city will be flushed to-night. The movement is a commendable one.

What may be Expected from the McKee Rankin Company next Week.

Mr. and Mrs. McKee Rankin announce a very notable company for the production of "49" and "The Danites" at Philharmonic Hall next week. "It is," says the San Francisco Ingleside, "a veritable collection of cyclopean artists—big, manly men of giant mould, blending with exquisite art the numberless little touches which the inspiration of nature and the gift of experience have suggested." This company was formed with the intention of presenting a powerful ensemble regardless of individual prominence. The leading members are known for independent starring ventures. The success of this company in San Francisco was quick and emphatic. For four weeks it drew large and demonstrative audiences to the Bush street theater, in the face of the opera craze. Then it went to the Baldwin and in "Storm Beaten" gave the most perfect melo-dramatic revival seen on the Pacific coast. The press of San Francisco, daily and weekly, have devoted columns of praise to this superb organization. Not a line of adverse comment upon its work has been printed since it left New York three months ago. With this splendid reputation, this solid endorsement, the McKee Rankin Company now comes to Victoria. That it will be heartily welcomed and cordially sustained there is little doubt. Our playgoers have always been ready to appreciate and sustain a really strong attraction, and there seems to be no possible room for cavil concerning the Rankin company.

Mining News.

There is every indication, says a correspondent, that there will be a mining boom in the Rockies, along the C. P. R. track, during the coming season. Four complete outfits for crushing quartz passed Laggan during the past few days, and more are on their way. Prospectors are very reticent, but wear very complacent countenances, and their actions indicate the satisfaction they do not care to express in words.

OH WHY THIS BACKING?

Ah! why this backing and yielding,
This passing in doubt on the brink?
There are things far worse than killing,
Cup more bitter than gall to drink.

Oh, where is the honor of Britain?
Her might in the hour of strife;
That now, like a startled hitter,
She would steal from the fowler's sight?

The cant of peace-loving hucksters
Has weakened the heart of her sons.
The singing of Russian tricksters
Has silenced the roar of her guns.

Ah! where is our boast of vantage,
The renown that our fathers won?
Forgot in this paling east age,
At the frown of the northern Hun.

Our flag, in enfeebled fingers,
Droops in the blight of a foe's disdain.
While in many a heart still lingers
A smouldering fire of pain.

We know, and are wroth in knowing,
Were it not for a dotard few,
Who for long years have been sowing
A harvest they are sure to rue.

We long are this had been pounding
At the Muscovite's granite gate
With our pawn's of victory sounding
Over her stronghelds desolate.

Victoria, April 24.

Would not Pay.

A little row took place on Store street this morning between a cabdriver and a Chinaman. The latter, after riding part of the way from Esquimalt, refused to pay "four bits," but "Jehu," who was bound to have his fare, seized hold of John's queue and threatened to cut it off. The trouble was settled by another Chinaman paying the fare demanded. During the fracas 100 or more people gathered on the street.

Small-Pox.

This disease has, so far as Nanaimo is concerned, ceased to exist there. Camp 10 quarantine was broken up on Wednesday and the last patient, Chisholm, released from detention.

THE BOOK OF HOURS.

(R. E. Still in Atlantic.)

As one who reads a tale writ in a tongue
He only partly knows—runs over it
And follows but the story, losing wit
And charm and half the subtle links among
The bags and harms that the book's folk hent—
So do we with our life. Night comes, and morn:
I know that one has died and one is born;
That this by love and that by hate is rent.
But all the grace and glory of it fail
To touch me, and the moanings they enfold,
The Spirit of the World hath sold the tale,
And tells it; and 'tis very wise and old.
But o'er the page there is a mist and veil;
I do not know the tongue in which 'tis told.

"Before and Behind the Scenes."

(New London Telegram.)

To show more clearly the comicalities and absurdities of stage life, we cite a few incidents which are the results of personal observation, and which, to the unthinking, show the vast difference between the relations of professional people before and behind the scenes.

Before the scenes: Hero—For years I have followed you as the relentless tiger follows his prey, and now you must prepare for the just punishment which your crimes deserve. This do I bury my knife again and again in your craven heart—thus do I satiate my direst vengeance.

Villain—With my dying breath I curse you. (Dies).

Behind the scenes: Hero—Say, Curly, lend me a collar button; some fakir has collared mine.

Villain—That's an old guy. But here you are. Don't be ashamed to return it.

Before the scenes: King—Down, slave, and beg my royal pardon.

Slave—Yes, sire; most humbly do I crave thy clemency.

Behind the scenes: Slave—Here, you royal dummy with the tin fake on, pull off my boots, will you? I can't stoop over this pad.

King—Why, cegt, Jimmy.

Before the scenes: Hero—Thus I do endow thee with a royal ransom. Take this package; within it you will find $10,000, and if you need any more you have but to send word to my lawyer.

Behind the scenes: Hero (who is also the manager)—I am very sorry, Lime, but I can't pay your salary this week. Here is $1; make that go till we strike better business. That's a good girl.

An Italian Wet-Nurse.

[Lippincott's Magazine.]

The new outfit—everything complete, from weaning apparel down to mass-book and rosary—the comfortable lodging, the abundant food, the kindly and cheery treatment—all these are among the pleasures of a balia's life. On the other hand she is separated from her own people and her home. It is true that she may send and receive letters as often as she pleases. But these letters will only convey good news. Should any evil befall her children or husband she will never know it until the day (always one and sometimes two years distant) when she returns to her village. She is allowed to receive occasional visits from her friends, husband and children, but they are never allowed to remain an instant alone with her, lest some piece of news should be communicated which may upset her tranquility.

Should any member of the family die, the fact will not only not be mentioned, but the messages the deceased person was in the habit of sending will be repeated in every letter. I well remember, many years ago, the melancholy impression made upon my mind by the sight of a pretty young balia who was seated by her mistress' side and knitting socks for her own baby—the baby who had been in its small grave for nearly a year, but for whom she had been carefully accumulating piles of clothing, and to whom she was hoping to to return within a week. During all the months of absence she had been dwelling on the thought of this baby, her first; but she never learned her loss until she returned home.

Politicians Not Religious.

[Washington Letter.]

Politicians as a class are very irreligious, in the sense that they pay no attention to the forms of religion. They are very timid, however, upon the subject, and cannot be classed as liberals. They are indifferent to the subject. They would be the very last, however, to publicly show this indifference or to do any thing which would give the religious people a chance to say they were infidels.

You can count on the fingers of your two hands the prominent men of either branch of congress who might be classed as remotely religious. The great mass of them never attend church, and would as soon think of going to an astrologer or a fortune-teller as to a clergyman for advice in a difficult or delicate matter. But if a proposition were to come up to-morrow in the house to abolish the post of chaplain there would be a perfect howl of pious indignation from the majority of the members. They class the churches as so many corporations whose influence is not to be lightly lost for any mere question of ideas.

Loss and Gain.

CHAPTER I.

"I was taken sick a year ago
With bilious fever"

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I
Could not move!
I shrank!
From 228 lbs. to 120! I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system assumed renewed life if by magic, and after using several bottles, I am not only as sound as a sovereign, but weigh more than I did before. Use Hop Bitters I owe my life." R. FITZPATRICK.
Dublin, June 6, '80.

CHAPTER II.

"Malden, Mass., Feb. 1, 1881. Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache, Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner. No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure, until I used Hop Bitters.
"The first bottle
Nearly cured me!"
The second made me as well and strong as when a child.
"And I have been so to this day."
My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious
"Kidney, liver and urinary complaint,
Pronounced by Boston's best physicians
"Incurable!"
Seven bottles of your Bitters cured him and I know of the "Lives of eight persons"
In my neighborhood that have been saved by your bitters.
And many more are using them with great benefit.
"They almost
Do miracles!" —Mrs. E. D. Slack.

How to Get Sick.—Expose yourself day and night; eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised, and then you will want to know how to get well, which is answered in three words, Take Hop Bitters!

A BY-LAW

To Enable the Corporation of the City of Victoria to Raise the Sum of $70,000 for Water Works Purposes.

WHEREAS IT IS EXPEDIENT TO RAISE a further sum of money for the purpose of extending the Water Works, constructing reservoirs to ensure a more certain and equitable supply of water to all parts of the City, for carrying on the said Water Works upon such a scale as may be necessary to furnish an adequate supply of fresh water to the increasing population of the City; for the greater protection of the City against fire, and for other purposes in connection with the said Water Works.

And whereas it is estimated that the sum of $70,000 will be required for the above named purposes;

And whereas it is desirable and expedient that the above named sum of $70,000 should be obtained in the manner hereinafter mentioned;

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation, according to the last revised assessment roll, that is, the assessment roll for 1885, was $3,062,289;

And whereas the sum of $6,372 yearly will be required to create a sinking fund for the due repayment of the said principal sum of $70,000 and interest thereon, as hereinafter mentioned, to provide which an additional annual special rate of 5-20 of one cent in the dollar will be required.

Be it therefore enacted by the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said City to raise by way of loan from any person or persons, or body or bodies corporate, who may be willing to advance the same upon the credit of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $70,000, and to cause the same to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Corporation for the purposes and with the object hereinbefore recited.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures, for sum less than $500 each, to be made for such sums of money as may be required for the purposes of the said loan, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the common seal of the said Corporation and signed by the Mayor.

3. The said debentures shall be made payable in thirty years at furtherest from the day hereinafter mentioned for this by-law to take effect, at the office of the Treasurer of the said Corporation and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of the interest.

4. The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half yearly, at the office of the said Treasurer.

5. For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures, and the interest to be become due thereon, an equal special rate of 5-20 of one cent in the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property during the continuance of the said debentures, or any of them.

6. Section 3 of the Victoria Revenue By-law, 1881, is hereby amended by striking out the words "eight-tenths" and substituting the words "eleven-twentieths."

7. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation, from time to time, to repurchase any of the said debentures, and all debentures so repurchased shall be forthwith cancelled and no reissue of debentures shall be made in consequence of such repurchase.

8. This By-law shall take effect on the first day of June 1885.

9. This By-law may be cited for all purposes as the "Water Works Loan By-Law, 1885."
